Payment of potgi

When Village officers were entrusted with the
1) collection work of panchayat taxes they are not subordinate to the Village Panchayats but they were under the Control of the Amildars. It is therefore necessary that the potgi due to them should be disbursed by the Amildar but by the Panchayat (vide Go. no. L264-75-08 71-29-6 dt 10/7/30.)

Sale of Vacant sites

2) Government have already decided that the income from sale of vacant sites and amanat cannot be handed over to individual panchayat (Vide Go no R173-32 HR 173-26-29 dated 9/9/32

3) With regard to the Chairmen of Panchayats conducting auction sales of impounded cattle, the powers of the District magistrate under Secs 6, 12 & 17 of the Cattle Trespass Act, have been transferred to the Panchayats in regard to items situated within their respective Jurisdictions. The powers of the District magistrate under Sec 14 of the Act have not been transferred to the Panchayats. So the Officer conducting the sale of impounded cattle has to the appointed by the District Magistrate. If it is considered expedient to transfer the powers of the District magistrate under this section also to the village panchayat, the village panchayat may authorise the Chairman to conduct the sale. According to the present law, Government cannot empower the Chairmen to conduct sales. The Chairman can conduct sales only when he is authorised by the District magistrate or by the village panchayat after the powers of the District magistrate are transferred to the latter subject. Collection of Village Panchayet Taxes.

The collection work of village panchayet has now been entrusted to the patels and shanbhogues. Before the potgi due to these officials is paid, a bill should be prepared and sanction obtained from the proper authority. This procedure will not only hinder the timely disbursement of potgi, is not conducive to good work. The commission due to the Secretary up to 5% is drawn and paid by the Panchayet on its own responsibility. It is proposed that the panchayets may be empowered to draw and pay the potgi as per scale fixed to the patels and Shanbhogues also. This will render the collection work satisfactory.

That the proceeds derived from the sale of Vacant sites belonging to Panchayets and from Sarvai be given to Panchayets.

That the Chairman be empowered to conduct auction sales of impounded cattle in respect of cattle pounds under the control of the Panchayets.
